Pastor's Bible Study - Romans 11:33–36 Discussion Questions

1. How does Paul's transition from deep theology to heartfelt worship challenge the way we approach Bible study?
2. In verse 33, Paul says God's ways are "past finding out." What does that teach us about trusting God when life feels untraceable?
3. Why do you think Paul emphasizes that God doesn't need a counselor or owe anyone anything? How does that humble us?
4. What are some ways people today act as if God is in their debt?
5. Verse 36 reminds us everything is "of Him, through Him, and to Him." How does this shape our daily priorities?
6. Where in your own life are you tempted to live for your own glory rather than God's?
7. How does knowing that everything ends in God's glory bring both conviction and comfort?
